3. JJC Chairman's report

Financial

- October: $1,190.81

- YTD: $7,119.51

4. Old Business

- Updates on FY Priorities

Youth Involvement:

Have confirmed that CSG collaboration may be able to assist with this.

Restorative Practices

Discussion of recommendations of memorandum and recent experiences with restorative practices trainings. Julia will draft a letter to send with a copy of MOU to notify trainers of a list that will be shared in response to requests received. This list will also have a disclaimer regarding the JJC's responsibility with overseeing the trainers.

Station Adjustment

SAO Civil has reviewed forms. Coordinating a date for the workgroup to come together to discuss the forms. Also waiting for further direction on JJO training.

Question about if this will be voluntary for each police agency to use forms – yes.

Discussed law enforcement resource cards – these were previously purchased. Need to do an update on them if they are useful. Consensus was to do an update and include QR code on card and/or Station Adjustment form.

There is a G.O. from the Chief Judge regarding the juvenile fines and fees. Julia will send out to the JJC Board of Directors.
