Result:	APPROVED as distributed
----------------	--------------------------------

3. JJC Chairman's report

No financial update.

Continue to work with DHS to get contract

4. Old Business

- Racial and Ethnic Disparities

Provided the R/ED plan and Court Services Annual report for quantitative data to the Health Department. Meeting with the Health Department is scheduled for Friday, December 13.

- Collaboration with CSG

No additional discussion; still finalizing workgroup template.

- JJC Sustainability Updates

Will revisit after the new year.

- Family Engagement Proposal
Discussion around training opportunity - Improving Outcomes by Partnering with Youth and Families training for system stakeholders. An outline was shared with the Board. The total cost for this in person (3 days) = $3900 for two trainers +$1750 for travel. Based on areas of focus and specific technical assistance topics identified by local stakeholders group, additional training webinars can be developed and facilitated for an additional cost.

Julia to follow up on questions:

- How many individuals would be trained?
- Can we break down the training days?

Other considerations discussed:

- Ensure that funding can be allotted to work with parents through Parent Café's
- Confirm how training will be implemented/utilized and if agreements are needed
- Modify previous agreements as needed to support implementation of the training.

- Peer Jury Discussion
Discussion around what this could take to set up, referencing how City of Aurora Peer Jury is set up.
Rachele is going to meet with SAO & Sheriff's Dept to discuss

5. New Business
6. Trends/Legislative Updates
None
7. Other updates
8. Adjournment – 12:47 PM
